ORDER

This 31st day of July, 2007, it appearing that:

1. All non-sealed and non-expunged records are forwarded to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) by the Clerk of this Court in accordance with the Records Disposition Program established by the Judicial Conference pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 457.
2. The policy of this Court is that case records are forwarded to the NARA after they have been maintained in this Court for a minimum period of six months after the final disposition of the case, unless otherwise ordered.
3. This case will be forwarded to the NARA after being held for the minimum period of six months.
4. During the course of proceedings in the above-entitled action, parties filed certain confidential papers under seal pursuant to a protective order of the Court.
5. The Clerk has requested an order be issued directing that the sealed documents be returned to the filing parties.

NOW, therefore, IT IS ORDERED that:

1. When the Clerk prepares the record of the above-entitled case for subsequent transfer to the NARA, he shall notify the parties that he will surrender the sealed documents to the filing parties on a stated date and that the parties shall make arrangements to receive them at the Clerk's Office on that date.
2. On the designated date, the Clerk shall surrender to the filing parties all sealed documents.
3. Any sealed documents in the record of this case shall remain sealed until disposed of in accordance with this order.
4. Should the filing parties fail to make arrangements for procuring the sealed documents on the designated date, the said documents shall be unsealed and thereafter be forwarded to the FARC in accordance with the Records Disposition Program.
5. After the designated date noted above, the Clerk shall arrange to forward the record of this case to the NARA in accordance with the policy of this Court.

RE: Return of Sealed Documents.
Civ No.: 06-78 SLR

Dear Sir/Madame:

The Clerk's Office is currently in the process of preparing the above case for transfer to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA). Pursuant to the enclosed order of the court, pro se parties are asked to claim the sealed documents mentioned in the Order by August 14, 2007. All sealed documents filed in subject case are identified in yellow on the attached partial docket sheet. A jointly filed document may be claimed by any attorney who signed/filed the document.

If parties do not claim the documents that they filed by the above date, the Clerk will unseal any sealed documents remaining and send them to the NARA in accordance with the Order. To claim your sealed documents kindly send a formal letter of request to our court in the provided self addressed envelope.

Simply specify the documents that you are claiming by stating the case number and docket item number(s), along with your name and address. Once we receive your mailed claim, we will prepare the documents for your retrieval and contact you when they are ready for pick-up. If you have any further questions please contact the Clerks Office at (302)573-6170.

Sincerely,

By: /s/Larisha Davis
